Key Note Speaker

Dr Brian Creedon

Clinical Director

National Office of Clinical Audit (NOCA)

To measure or not to measure?

That is the question?

A Palliative Medicine Consultant at University Hospital Waterford, Dr Creedon has held senior clinical leadership roles in medicine and palliative care, including Clinical Lead for Medicine and Regional Lead for HSE South within the National Clinical Programme for Palliative Care.

Dr Creedon has a strong commitment to education and training, with academic affiliations including Senior Lecturer in Clinical Education at UCC, Honorary Clinical Senior Lecturer at RCSI, and senior fellowship and training roles with UCD, TCD, and the Royal College of Physicians of Ireland.

His work is widely recognised through publications, research, awards, and grant funding, including support from the Irish Hospice Foundation and national clinical programmes. He has consistently focused on integrating clinical leadership, audit, education, and service improvement to enhance patient-centred care in Ireland.
